"Childhood is the most beautiful of all Life's seasons."

To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas.

A dream is a wish the heart makes.

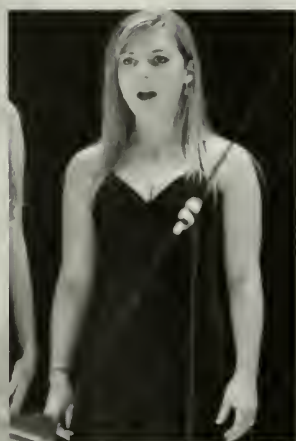

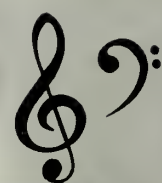

The joys of childhood are the best life has to give.

This is my wish for you:
Comfort on difficult days,
smiles when sadness intrudes,
rainbows to follow the clouds
and laughter to kiss your lips.

Dear Elizabeth:

We are finding it hard to believe that our little girl is graduating. When we go through pictures and video of you growing up, we get teary-eyed. You are a very kind, caring and happy young lady! You have excelled as a dancer and a cheerleader. You are a wonderful sister to your brother John and recently your friend Brittany, too. Dolly, as the proudest father I could be, I am so impressed with your warm heart, and your unconditional love for family and friends. I am extremely pleased that you have impeccable manners and you always use them. You are also incredible at lake fishing. "I will never be as awesome at that!" It just proves when you put your mind toward something you will succeed. Always strive to be the best you can be. We Love You.

Dear Brenna,
Dad and I want you to know how extremely proud we are to have you as a daughter.
You have consistently proven to us how hard working, dedicated, kind and loving you are in all that you do. Your brothers are always amazed how mature you are and the three of you share a special bond that can never be broken. You have always held your head up high and risen above the gossip and the "mean girls", remaining as beautiful on the inside as you are on the outside. Dad and I know you will do great things in your life.
Always stay true to yourself, continue to be honest and ask God for help often.

far, you'll always be great, you already are."

Chickie:

It's been a long time coming, but congratulation on completing high school. I'm so happy that you have finished school and will be graduating. I remember all the days when we were younger, having good times and all the good fights we've had.:) I really hope you enjoyed going to school at the same place I did all these years because it was really cool for me to have my sister in the same school and cheering for me in hockey and along the way. I hope that this year was a fun and memorable one and that you have memories that will last forever like I do. Congrats Chickie! I am SO proud that you are my sister.

Love, Big Bro
